Grantley has strong leadership skills including 30 plus years' experience advising medium-to-large businesses in the provision of strategic advisory, consulting and taxation services where his immersive nature sees him understand every client's business from the ground up. He has broad experience in the Property & Construction, Sporting, Healthcare and Wine sectors as well as being able to advise a local food manufacturer, a leading hotel or an international family trust structure. Grantley's foresight sees him guide our larger clientele of Nexia Edwards Marshall to achieve greatness.

Grantley adds impressive board experience as the current Chair of Greyhound Racing SA Ltd, Company Secretary for the Alexander & Symonds Group, Director of Port Adelaide Football & Community Club and confidential Board Advisor to many clients.

In Grantley's mind, there is no business that cannot be improved – his positivity, enthusiasm and forward thinking approach sees him lead workshops for clients and colleagues alike to discuss, outline and implement strategic plans, while his ongoing management reporting and strong interpersonal connections see him play key advisory roles for many of Nexia Edwards Marshall clients.

From business to personal achievements – trust Grantley to mentor, monitor, lead with passion and to strive for success.

Formal Qualifications

Grantley holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Accountancy from the University of South Australia. He is a Fellow of both Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand and The Tax Institute as well as being a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Structuring

Grantley is often approached for his expertise to undertake comprehensive reviews of business structures to ensure key asset protection and family succession occurs in a tax-effective manner. In doing this Grantley considers the tax and accounting implications as well as the impacts of potential change for the organisation.

Corporate governance

Through Grantley's significant board experience he has strengthened his corporate governance expertise. He currently is the Chair of Greyhound Racing SA Ltd and is the company secretary for the Alexander & Symonds Group as well as being a key adviser to our larger clients on all elements of their business.

His reputation within the Taxation field is highlighted by his past appointments within The Tax Institute including Chair of State Council and Chair National Education Committee.

Other past appointments include Chair of National Disability Support Partners Pty Ltd and Chair of Racing & Wagering SA Ltd further reinforcing his corporate governance expertise.

To mix business with pleasure he has been privileged to also be an active member of a number Port Adelaide Football Club committees and is also currently a member of the Finance & Audit Committee, a position which he has held for a number of years.

Strategic Planning

Grantley works closely with clients to improve their businesses. His passion and enthusiasm coupled with his strong interpersonal skills allow him to work with clients to achieve their goals through a holistic approach.

Grantley enjoys leading workshops to discuss, plan and then assist with the implementation of the strategic plan to achieve the goals of the clients. Strong ongoing management reporting and prioritising key performance indicators play a key role in achieving these plans as well as ensuring that information is communicated in a method that the client is able to understand and apply the information provided to them.

He also provides detailed strategic taxation advice, conducts various management consulting assignments and enjoys performing due diligence for mergers and acquisitions.
